Clayton County Human Services Directory

A Special Project of the Clayton County Board of Health and the Archway Partnership/Public Health Issues Work Group

Disclaimer Statement: This directory provides a list of community resources that support the health and other related human services needs of Clayton residents. Users are encouraged to contact listed agencies directly to verify services, as availability of some services and other information may have changed since the release of this document.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Clayton County Board of Health and Archway Public Health Issues Work Group would like to thank all Clayton County agencies, providers and advocates for their assistance in developing this resource for Clayton County. Together we can create “A more healthy and safer community.”

A special thank you to the Clayton County Collaborative, Clayton State University, and Reynard Pulliam for the development of the 2009 –2010 Clayton Cares Directory upon which this updated version is based.

And finally, a special thank you to Tanya Woods, Michelle Batts, and Joel Hall of Clayton County Board of Health for preparing this document for publication.

The mission of the Center for the Visually Impaired (CVI) is to empower people impacted by vision loss to live with independence and dignity. CVI provides services to people of all ages with all degrees of vision loss. The BEGIN program provides early intervention and family support for children from birth to age 5 and their families. The STARS (Social, Therapeutic, Academic and Recreational Services) program provides after school, summer, weekend and mentoring opportunities for school age youth. Clients of the Maxwell Low Vision Clinic, available to individuals starting at age 6, receive a low-vision evaluation and training on assistive devices and aids such as magnifiers and large print items to help with daily activities. The New View Adult Rehabilitation Program serves working-age adults by providing vision rehabilitation services, including classes in orientation and mobility, activities of daily living, assistive technology and job readiness and job placement assistance. The New View also works with older adults in the community by providing training in the home and classes at satellite locations such as senior centers. Support groups are available to help with adjustment to vision loss. Volunteer opportunities are available for individuals or groups interested in helping CVI fulfill its mission.

Hours: Monday through Friday 8 am - 4:30 pm

Eligibility: Individuals who are visually impaired or blind

MORROW - PATHWAY TRAILS & PARKS

The Perfect Park is Waiting for You!

Morrow is home to 11 lush parks that provide the ideal settings for your recreation needs, whether that entails working out, enjoying a picnic or playing with the kids.

If your main motivation for visiting a park is to work out, Morrow has many options for you. Barton Memorial Park, located along Meadowbrook, provides running trails and in the future will include a skate park and a splash pool. Reynold's Nature Preserve is a great place to walk and take in breathtaking scenery. Jim and Peggy Millirons Park will soon be a destination point along Morrow's future Jesters Creek Trail System.

For those who love to relax at a park, try Charles Sorrow Park on Patricia Drive, a tranquil haven for those who enjoy reading a good book in the outdoors. John Robert Park is another meditative retreat in the heart of Morrow, located on John Robert Drive, as is Frost and Thelma Ward Park located at the junction of Rickenbacker Circle and York Road.

Families in Morrow can always take their kids to play and enjoy a nice picnic at one of our many parks equipped with playgrounds and picnic tables:

- Shirley and Wendall Watterson Park
- Milton Daniel Park
- J.L. Christian Park
- Parker E. Duffey Memorial Park
- Melvin and Jean Newman Park

Morrow's parks are the perfect escape for everyone. You can be sure there is a perfect park waiting for you, here in Morrow!

Newman Wetlands Center

Morrow is also home to a unique wetlands and environmental education facility, Newman Wetlands Center, which is host to interesting exhibits and a boardwalk trail that takes you through a wetland full of exciting wildlife and plant species.
