FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 10, 2015

Clayton County Parks and Recreation Hosts
HBCU College Fair, Tennis Tournament, and Free Movie Night

Jonesboro, GA, September 10, 2015–

The Clayton County Tennis Center will host the 15th Annual HBCU National Championships on Wednesday, September 16th to Saturday, September 19th, 2015 in Jonesboro, GA. This year's competition will gather some of the top Historically Black Colleges and Universities representing NCAA division I, II and NAIA tennis programs. In conjunction with HBCU National Tennis Tournament for 2015, Clayton County Board for Commissioners, in collaboration with Clayton County Parks and Recreation will be hosting a College Fair to showcase the Historically Black Colleges and Universities on Saturday 19th from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm at the Charley Griswell Senior Center. This is a great opportunity for middle school and high school students to meet with college representatives to get more information on what Historically Black Colleges and Universities have to offer their students. HBCU Colleges and Universities confirmed to attend are Mississippi State University, Alabama A&M, Albany State University, Tuskegee University and many more. The 2015 HBCU College fair is free to attend. Prior to the HBCU College Fair there will be a free movie on Wednesday, Saturday 16th at 7:30 pm at the VIP Complex/ Amphitheater. As well as a High School Tennis Clinic on Saturday, September 19th for students who might be interested in improving their tennis skills or perhaps attracting the attention of a college coach and the possibility of a scholarship.

If you would like more information about on the 2015 HBCU College Fair in Clayton County, please contact Rachel Daniels at 770-603-4014 or email at Rachel.daniels@co.clayton.ga.us.
