4. Public Comment.

Jerrold Moore stated:

I just have a few questions. My first question is why did Clayton County not open polls on Saturday? The second question is why were the locations reduced from eight to six. The third question is I know there has been difficulty finding poll workers, what is being done to recruit more poll workers? And my final question is, some places had long lines and delays, what are some possible opposition to fixing the long lines in upcoming elections? Because with the increase in getting people out to vote we may have more and more people out to vote maybe we can help with those issues.

Chair Johnson inquired about the public commenter's name and where he lived.

Jerrold Moore informed the Board that his name is Jerrold Moore. He lives in Atlanta and he is with Protect the Vote.

Registrar Manager Brown informed the Board that the answer to most of Mr. Moore's questions was due to the Thanksgiving Holiday and finding staff that would be able to work Saturday, November 26, 2022.

Board Member Pullar inquired if the shortage of staff was the reason for both less advanced voting location and not being open on Saturday, November 26, 2022

Registrar Manager Brown informed the Board that the shortage of staff was the reason for fewer advance voting locations and not being open on Saturday, November 26, 2022.
